PULASKI, TENN., FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 1st, 1866.

The Election.
At the election held in this county on Thursday 24th ult. for Attorney General, Maj. Frank Matthews, of Lawrence, received 334 votes, and Mr. Cowden, of Marshal, 27. Only 10 districts heard from.

ARRESTED.—Our friend, Thos. S. Fogg, Esq., arrested a negro boy on Sunday last, who, the Friday night before, had arrested and carried off without proper warrant some of Mr. Fogg's bacon. The negro resisted and attempted to get away, but another negro, who was implicated by reason of having been found in possession of a part of the stolen bacon, brought the flying miscreant to a halt by a pistol shot in his back.

RUNAWAY.—The most exciting scene that has occurred on our streets for some time, was the running away of a four-horse team on Saturday last, which belonged to Mr. Curtis, of Lincoln county. The horses started from the depot, came down main street to the square, turned to the rear of our office and went like a tornado down the rugged hill toward Childers' tan-yard, and as they swept past the crowd which happened to be assembled at our corner, many a face grew pale, and many a heart quivered for the fate of Mr. Curtis' little 5-year-old son, who was in the wagon. The horses were unbridled, and there seemed to be no escape for the little hero as the infuriated animals swept down the rugged pathway, and on toward the bridge at the tan-yard. But fortunately they reach the bridge and pass it safely, and immediately the frightened team is brought to a stand on the pike by the falling of one of the wheel horses. Strange to say, no damage whatever was sustained.

Cotton Prospects.
The newspaper accounts from Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, S. and N. Carolina, and other portions of Tennessee, represent the growing crops of cotton as seriously injured by the cold weather. The recent rains and cold weather have not only injured cotton in this county, but grass has got the start of farmers, and in some instances they will probably have to abandon a part of their crops.

The Republican Banner.
We invite the attention of our readers to an advertisement of the "Weekly Republican Banner," to be found elsewhere in this paper. We take great pleasure in saying to any of our friends who may wish to read a weekly paper published in Nashville, that the "Banner" is all that it professes to be in the advertisement referred to. The gentlemen who control it editorially, financially and mechanically are true men—worthy of the esteem and patronage of good men in the south. Try the Banner and the Citizen.

MURDER.—On Monday, 21st ult., a negro was found dead near Murfreesboro, having been murdered by a discharged negro soldier named Lucius Witt, who says he was raised in Giles county.

We learn from the Columbia Herald that there are thirty-three prisoners confined in the jail of Maury county at this time.
This would be a bad record for Maury if fifteen of the prisoners were not from this county.

DISCONTINUED.—Gen. Fisk has issued a circular abolishing the Freedman's Courts throughout the State.

Ex-Brigadier General J. B. Palmer, who commanded Brown's old Tennessee brigade during the latter part of the war, has been recently pardoned. Now if the President would win favor throughout the South, let him send a pardon to Tennessee's favorite General, the gallant Brown himself.

A considerable fight is now going on through the press between Brownlow and Prentice. Some of the papers are copying the articles. We look upon it too much in the light of a dog fight for any decent paper.—McMinnville Enterprise.

That is quite cool for a paper that endorses Brownlow's infamous legislature in the passage of the odious franchise law! How dare you talk about decency!

The Jacksonport, Arkansas, Herald says the prospect of a cotton crop is very good at this time in that section.

Rev. Albert Moore, formerly of this place, is president of a Literary Society in Grenada, Miss.

Happiness is a pig with a greasy tail, which everybody runs after and grabs at, but which nobody can hold.

The Jackson Mississippian says there is a large colored school in Coahoma county, Miss., taught by a lady of Southern birth and education. There will be many more in the South in good time.

A man came home drunk one cold night, and vomited in a basket containing geese, which his wife had placed before the fire, upon seeing which, he exclaimed, "My God, wife! when did I swallow them things?"

A Boston man writing home from Richmond says: "Though I do not believe fifty Southern gentlemen would wish to see slavery restored, I am convinced that many of the blacks would prefer slavery to the condition to which they have been reduced by sudden emancipation."

The Columbus, Georgia, Enquirer fears that the experiment of introducing German laborers upon the Southern plantations may fail, because they require food which is not raised there, and can only be procured from the North. The increased expense of such laborers may neutralize the cheapness of their wages.

The Negro Testimony bill, says the Nashville Banner, 26th ult., so amended as to take immediate effect, passed a third reading in the House yesterday, and is now a law. In accordance with the pledge given by Gen. Fisk, the Freedmen's Court will, we suppose, be abolished throughout the State.

Old Mail Routes Re-established.

The contract for carrying the mail from here to Fayetteville once a week, has been let out, and regular trips will be made after the 1st of July. Mr. Markum of this place is the contractor.

Another route from here westward has been established, but we do not know its terminus or the name of the contractor.

We hope the citizens will now go to work to secure the appointment of post masters, or post mistresses, if masters can't be found, by the time specified for the mails to begin.

We hope further that clubs for the Citizen will be made up at each office. Clubs over ten are supplied at $3 each.

Wilson, Carter & Co.

The people of this community are looking forward with anxiety for the railroad bridge at Decatur to be completed, and for the reduction of freight charges to Memphis. Then, with proper liberality and energy, Memphis merchants may secure a heavy trade from Giles. And we feel very sure that the firm above mentioned will receive a full share of the patronage bestowed. Other Memphis merchants would do well to take advantage of the opportunity afforded to make themselves known throughout this section of country by advertising in the Pulaski Citizen.

Hon. Edmund Cooper is on a visit to New York.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

In consequence of the general ignorance in the South of the rules of postage established by law, many letters of importance are daily lost to those interested by being improperly or insufficiently stamped. The regulations require that all such letters dropped into post offices shall be immediately forwarded to the Dead Letter office, where they are never heard from unless they contain money, or other enclosures of value. We give below some information which may prevent vexation to correspondents.

The rate of postage on letters within the United States is 3 cents for every letter or sealed package weighing one-half ounce or under. Those over one-half ounce, 6 cents and 8 cents for every additional half ounce. Prepayment with stamps in all cases is required. All letters without the necessary postage stamps, or which are stamped with revenue stamps, will be forwarded to the Dead Letter office immediately after being dropped into any post office.
Postage stamps issued prior to 1860 are worthless, and will not answer for present purposes.
